NEW-YORK August 18.

JAMES M'Gregory, an Iriſhman, (and not an Old Engliſhman, as the letter from Albany in our laſt mentioned) was the perſon who fill'd the cartridges with powder only, for the two companies poſted at Saraghtoga. He has been many years in the French ſervice at Quebec, in Canada, and two years ſince deſerted from them, and inliſted himſelf in the Connecticut forces this Spring, to which he now belongs.

A new piece of policy made uſe of by general Johnſon, in his march to Crown Point: He has made his Indians naked and painted, perform many mock fights, with his other troops, in the manner of a real Indian fight, except lead in the guns; by this exerciſe he accuſtoms his troops to be well acquainted with the Indian manner of fighting. A moſt prudent thought indeed.

Annapolis, Auguſt 7. This day his excellency our governor returned home in good health, from fort Cumberland, at Will's Creek.

Auguſt 14. We hear that his excellency our governor, when he was laſt at the Weſtward, ordered ſeveral ſmall forts to be erected, for the defence of the Weſtern frontiers.

Boſton, Sept. 1. Laſt friday an expreſs arrived here from general Johnſon, and by the letters brought we learn, That a perfect harmony ſubſiſts between the officers of the army; that they were all in health, and high ſpirits, tho' determined to act with caution; that a diviſion of the army was marching to lake Sacrament, where they intended to erect a fort, which might ſecure them a retreat, or enable them to make a ſtand till further reinforced; that 4 of the Indian ſpies had got back from Canada, who report, that the Savages who defeated general Braddock's army were returned, cloathed with the Engliſh regimentals; but no mention of any of their canoes being ſeen by our boats and veſſels at Oſwego, on their return from the Ohio; which, notwithſtanding the ſuppoſed activity of the commanding officer there, we hope may be the caſe, and it's a proof, that the enemy's fleet of lake Ontario is paſſable; and that ſome ſay from that is taken, our besieging Oswego, and having several skirmishes of horse on the lake, will [illegible] on the entire command of those waters. The [illegible] report, That the French Mohawks (great Cowardly Dogs) had, as was expected, taken up the hatchet against the English, which may partly account for the [illegible] of our Mohawks being away; that the Canadians were all in motion, shipping out, that they are quite desirous of meeting us at Crown-Point, and that they purpose to do it with 6000 men. Extract of a Letter from the Camp at the Great Carrying Place, towards Crown Point, dated August 24.

—"Yesterday at a council of war, we had 4 of Col. Johnson's Indians before us to examine, in regard to the observations they have lately made, who were sent to Canada about 30 days since, by general Johnson, for intelligence, and return'd the 21st inst. who say, That the Canadians were all in motion for the protection of Crown Point, and as they came from Mount Real to St. John's, the roads were constantly crowded with waggons, passing and repassing, to convey provision, ammunition, &c. there, and from thence to be conveyed over lake Champlain to Crown-Point, in large and one small sloop, which are constantly employed in that service: That from St. John's they went to Crown Point, where they were kindly received by the commanding officer, who waited with impatience to see general Johnson and the army; and who said, that he soon expected to have 8000 men."

Philadelphia, Sept. 4. Friday last Col. Dunbar with the troops under his command, arrived here, and encamped on Society-Hill.

Last Thursday Mr CHARLES MAYNE was married, to a Daughter of the Hon. JAMES MICHIE, Esq; a most agreeable young Lady, with fine Accomplishments, and an handsome Fortune.

Extract of a Letter from New York, dated September 25th, 1755.

—"Our brave General Johnson has a Musket Ball in his Thigh, which cannot be extracted at this Time, his Presence is too much wanted and given in the Arm: He and the noble brave Lyman, exposed themselves rather too much at the late Engagement near Lake George; they stood upon Stumps of Trees, taking their Places and giving Orders during the whole Action, or 'till they were obliged to carry Johnson to his Tent. King Hendrick was found tied to a Tree and flabb'd, but not scalp'd. All our Indian Captains (every one Irishmen) were killed, tho' they beat every Party they attack'd or that attack'd them. Baron Dieskau, is now at Albany, but as his Wound is in his Bladder and his Urine issues thro' the Wound, 'tis judged he cannot recover: He seems to deserve the great Character given him; was General in Chief of all the French Forces in America; came to Quebec in the first Squadron; and says we have all Accounts for General Braddock's Defeat: He brought with 3170 Regulars with him. The French have not left but upon 1000 Men, besides Prisoners, and they every Day surrendering themselves to Gen. Johnson. The Indians that first gave Way having carried off the Cannon and left the French Regulars to shift for themselves.—By this Time, we reckon that General Johnson has between 6 and 7000 effective Men.—By the last Sloops from Albany, we have Letters from Oswego; whence General Shirley does not intend to write any Thing of News-kind, lest such Letters should be intercepted; but they say, we may expect Accounts in here something of Consequence.—We hear with the Happy, that Cape Breton will be reduced this Winter, by Admiral Boscawen."—
